Who we are...

One-Stop Solution

We seek to provide our clients with one-stop solutions. In this respect we are all-rounders, who place emphasis on our particular business areas. Should the expertise needed in a particular case or a special item or know-how of other consulting sectors not be available in our team, we care for procuring this additional know-how and hand over coordinated solutions.

Personal Commitment

It is important for us that our team members work on our clients' requests with heart and dedication. You may expect a reliable team continuously aiming for first quality and committed to assist you in your matters personally.

Integration and Communication

FALCON can be characterized by a high level of integration in the cooperation with our customers, with foreign companies and with other professions such as management consultants, lawyers or facility managers.

Integrity

In providing our services we make use of planning opportunities under high ethical and moral standards and we adhere to these principles.
