At a glance

- Founded in 1965
- Full-service provider in all impacting areas for our national and international clients
- The extensive practical experience of our partners and team members, combined with our comprehensive understanding of law and business, forms the basis of our work
- Strict focus on quality rather than quantity
- Multidisciplinary commercial law firm with a unique 'multi-focus approach': The consistent interdisciplinarity of our experts makes us a reliable and strong partner for the success of our clients. As part of our advice, we always keep an eye on issues that our clients did not even realize they needed to focus on.
