

At a Glance

HHB provides small-firm service with a broad range of experience. We were founded by Jim Himmelwright and Hal Huguley in 1998. The firm added John Boles as partner shortly after he joined in 2001, Robert Foster in 2020, and Ashley Graziano in 2024. With Jim and Robert's decades of service to local small businesses in Opelika and Auburn, John's background with a national accounting firm, and Ashley's bookkeeping and payroll expertise, our clients have access to a wealth of knowledge. Together, we provide decades of IRS, auditing and public accounting experience, along with strong local roots. What began as a local Opelika accounting firm continues to grow in capabilities. Like the historic railway that connects our two home office communities, our reach continues even beyond Opelika and Auburn.
